HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 6.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Panama dates to the 28th of September states that reports are received by the steamer Puebla of heavy earthquake at Callao. Portions of a hill were seen to fall and huge clouds of dust arose.

The ship Dreadnought, from Liverpool for San Francisco, was lost July 4th. The crew were brought to Panama.

About 100 feet of a high embankment on Harlem road fell last night and stopped the travel on the road.

The Hudson river road is again in running order to Albany.

William Heath & Co.'s proposition to settle gold contracts on the basis of 135, the difference to be paid half cash and half in ten days, or on resumption of payment by the gold bank, has been accepted by those whose contracts with the firm are four or six millions. The entire outstanding contracts of the firm on Friday's business amounts to nine millions.

The clipper ship Dreadnought, from Liverpool for San Francisco, was lost off the Island of Tierra del Fuego July 4th. The crew, 34 in all, had hardly time to get in the small boats with provisions. For 17 days they subsisted on shell fish, gathered from the rocks. The Indians treated them kindly, and they were finally rescued by a Norwegian bark. Some of the crew suffered terribly from cold and will lose their toes and fingers.

The Haytian government has concluded to purchase the plated steamer Atlanta from Oake Smith for $160,000.

Ah Quong, a Chinaman on Cherry street, murdered his wife last night, and Charles Archoe, another Chinaman, ended the bloody scene by stabbing himself. It seems that Ah Quong suspected Archoe of having taken improper liberties with his wife.

The World says 250 Cuban fillibusters left here on Monday morning in a tug intending to join a steamer from Philadelphia with a similar force on board.

The State Republican Committee met this evening. A communication was received from General Robinson, declining the nomination of Secretary of State on the ground of ill health. The Committee adjourned with the understanding that General Sigel will be seen with the view of tendering him the nomination of Secretary of State or State Engineer.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—All the members of the Supreme Court are present except Judge Field, and the business of the Court will be commenced with the argument in the case pending at the late adjournment.

The Attorney General has delivered an official opinion in response to a letter from General Sherman, Secretary of War, in relation to the suspension of certain claim agents from practice in the War Department, under an order issued September 11th. The Attorney General says the Secretary is not bound to recognize or do business with any claim agent known to have pursued his position for purposes of fraud, and whose character is such that a reasonable degree of confidence cannot be placed in his honesty.

Judge McDonald is appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue, vice Maer assigned to the district composed of Missouri, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

A report has been current to-day that Secretary Fish received a dispatch from the French and English governments that they have notified their fleets to treat the Hornet as a pirate and sink her when found, and hang her officers and crew if captured. This proves to be without foundation.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 6.—There are no new developments concerning the privateer Cuba, but the opinion is unanimous here that she will be released as soon as investigation is made. An entertainment was given on board of her this afternoon, attended by a number of ladies and gentlemen of this city.

St. Louis Dispatch.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—The colored Church at Carondelet was burned yesterday by an incendiary. Loss, $10,000.

Suit was brought in the U. S. District Court against Enoch Fletcher and Bacon Montgomery, for $5,000 damages, by Benj. Freeman, for personal violence and the destruction of his printing office, in Lafayette county, in 1866, by Montgomery, then commanding the State militia.

A woman's suffrage convention met here this morning. It was organized and elected Mrs. Julia Ward Howe as President, Miss Phebe Cozzens as Secretary, with a number of Vice Presidents.

The Irish Emigration Convention also met here to-day. Delegates were present from a large number of States.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—In the Irish Immigration Convention delegates were present from ten States, including Oregon; also from the Territories of Washington and Idaho, including some of the most prominent and influential men of their respective localities. Edward O'Neil, Mayor of Milwaukee, was elected President, with a number of Vice Presidents. A committee was appointed to prepare a plan to accomplish the objects of the convention, which are briefly to induce and assist Irish immigration to the country to settle on the free lands of the West instead of congregating in cities.

At the Woman's Suffrage Convection speeches were made and resolutions adopted.

Confession of Murder.

DETROIT, Oct. 6.—Stewart, the burglar who murdered John Willetts in his own house, in this city, on the night of the 15th of September, was brought to trial before the recorder this morning, and greatly surprised every one by pleading guilty of murder in the first degree. He was sentenced to solitary confinement for life. Up to the time of trial he stoutly denied his guilt.

The Indianapolis Tragedy.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 6.—The coroner's jury, late last night, rendered a verdict in the case of the victims of the explosion at the fair grounds. They say the accident was caused by the culpable mismanagement and carelessness of the engineer in charge, John Ball, deceased.

James McMullan, son of Rev. J. N. McMullan, was accidentally shot and killed this morning, while out hunting.

Earthquakes in Peru.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Letters say that on August 20th, 21st and 24th, there were two shocks of earthquake at Lima and Callao. They destroyed buildings and other property. The inhabitants fled and are living in tents. There were earthquakes all through August in the southern portion of the country from Lima to Callao. Many people are leaving and business is seriously impeded.

Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND, Oct. 6.—In the House of Representatives to-day a resolution that the iron-clad oath be administered to members of the House was referred to the proper committee, when it shall have been appointed. The protest adopted by the Republican caucus last night was presented with the view of answering the Attorney General's argument concerning the iron-clad oath. Stephen Turner, of Rappahannock, is elected Speaker, by 80 votes to 41 for Maldon, nominated by the Wells Republicans. Turner now has an application pending before Congress for a removal of his political disabilities, but he is not disqualified under the 14th amendment. The Senate completed its organization, and a resolution was adopted informing the commanding General that it is ready for business.

Card from Mrs. Stowe.

HARTFORD, Oct. 6.—The Courant to-morrow morning will contain a card from Mrs. Stowe, in which she says she desires the friends of justice and fair dealing to publish the announcement that she has kept silence heretofore in regard to the criticisms on the Lady Byron affair for two reasons; 1st, because she remarks the public mind is in too excited state to consider the matter dispassionately; 2d, because she expected the development of additional proof in England some of which of great importance has come to hand. Mrs. Stowe is preparing a review of the whole matter, with further facts and more documents, including several letters of Lady Byron to her attesting the vigor and soundness of her mind at the period referred to; also Mrs. Stowe's own letters to Lady Byron at the same time, which were returned to her by the executors soon after the Lady's death. She will also give the public a full account of the circumstances and reasons which led her to feel it her duty to make this disclosure as obliging alike to justice, gratitude and personal friendship.

It is thought the government at Madrid conceals the real state of affairs in the province as to what has transpired, and that the insurgents evacuated Reus to avoid a premature conflict with the troops. Some republican deputies have left Madrid to rise in the northern provinces simultaneous with the rising in Fruel and Huesca. The Republicans propose to rise in the provinces and then attempt to maintain themselves against such bands as have appeared. A riot is feared at Valladolid. Deputy Paul it is said was threatened with death if he did not join the insurgents. If the army remains faithful things need not be considered desperate.

Educating Editors.

THE SCIENCE OF JOURNALISM TO BE TAUGHT IN GENERAL LEE'S UNIVERSITY.

General Lee, who was somewhat artistically advertised during the war as one who never read the newspapers, and was especially indifferent to their strictures and opinions, has caused it to be announced that the University over which he presides will hereafter have a department for the education of editors in the science of journalism. Commenting upon this novel proposition of the ex-Commander of the Confederate forces, the Chicago Tribune says:

"Among the objections which would naturally arise to this plan are, first, that journalism is not a science; secondly, that it cannot be taught in a school; and thirdly, that if these facts were otherwise, General Lee would be specially incapacitated to teach or provide for teaching it, having never read the newspapers himself. The first difficulty in teaching journalism as a science is that its chief characteristic is one that no man can teach or learn, viz., originality. Unless a man has a keen instinct for the original perception of truth which others do not see, a mode of expressing thought which others have never used, a facility in obtaining news, or a taste in arranging and illuminating it, which others have not displayed, he cannot be a first class journalist. When Mr. Raymond took a set of printers with him to Boston to set up Daniel Webster's speech on the very day he made it, he proved himself a first class journalist, because the thing never was done before. Journalism has no beaten track. All beaten tracks are in derogation of good journalism. Its essence is novelty—the news. No two journalists employed on the same paper are, or could well be, alike in the quality or kind of their information, opinions, [illegible] or judgment. On every leading paper out of twelve or sixteen journalists employed in the office, some of the principal, including sometimes the managing editor, have been practical printers, others educated in college, and one or two good lawyers; and all of these should be, in their essential mind and character, reformers and statesmen. Besides these there should be two or three versed in the kindred domains of criticism of books, dramatic, musical and artistic [illegible] short-hand, and as many long-hand reporters; one or two who can look over three bushels of exchange newspapers per day without overlooking anything of importance in them, from an election in Maine to a new Scandal in Boston; and, finally, the financial and commercial editors and their reporters, night editors, etc. The whole University of Virginia could not teach the alphabet of journalism; and out of the students who may graduate with the highest honors from its studies, whatever they may be, not one in a thousand would be worth his salt as a journalist. Other professions involve a certain [illegible] knowledge, which, when learned, fits for the practice of the profession with more or less success. The [illegible] solid class of editorial writers could not be such without [illegible] of accurate thought [illegible] information. But the humorist class of journalists, Dickens, Nasby, Artemus Ward and Mark Twain, in our language, the Rochefort and his [illegible] rivals in the French [illegible] no facts, nothing but wit and fancy, which are nothing if not original; Gen. Lee might as well announce a department in his school for the education of humorists, poets, [illegible], historians, orators, Generals, lexicographers, statesmen, or any other first-class intellectual geniuses, as to propose to teach journalism."

CINCINNATI MANUFACTURES.—Mansfield, one of the oldest and best statistical and commercial editors in the United States, compiles for the Gazette some tables presenting the growth and present value of the manufacturing interests of Cincinnati. In the production of boots and shoes, beer, books and newspapers, drugs and chemicals, leather, oils, soap and candles, trunks and valises, white lead and iron manufactures, the increase since 1860 has been 150 per cent. That year the total value of these manufactures was $14,197,720; in 1869 it is $39,796,910. In 1860 the manufactures of the city and county, of every article and class, footed up $46,000,000 in value. This year Mansfield thinks the aggregate value will be $110,000,000; an increase of 140 in nine years, or at the rate of over fifteen and a half per cent. per year. On these statistics of local industry Mansfield grounds the opinion that the city has gained in nine years 30,000 workmen, representing a total increase of population from this one cause of 150,000.

We take the above from an exchange. On reading of the wonderful prosperity of Cincinnati our faith is somewhat shaken in Pendleton's declaration that the industries of his State are decaying and that desolation and ruin are staring the people in the face.

The Fortieth Parallel Surveying Party has been encamped within twenty-five miles of Salt Lake City all summer, examining the Wahsatch range of mountains. The party has been in the field nearly three years, and its labors are drawing to a close. It will make a thorough examination, and report upon the geology, mineralogy, topography, ornithology, zoology and botany of the belt lying along the fortieth parallel from the Sierra Nevada to the Missouri river. The entire force numbers sixty, twenty-five of whom are experts in various sciences, with twenty soldiers as an escort, the whole acting under orders from the engineering bureau of the War Department. Mr. Clarence King is the chief of the party and chief geologist as well. The botanist has collected 12,000 specimens of plants, some of which are unknown to science. The photographer has taken 600 views of striking localities, many of them being as fine as anything yet produced in this branch of art. The report of Mr. King will be published in about a year.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 8, 1869.

A Savings Bank.

The establishment of a Savings Department in connection with the First National Bank of this city, of which notice is given in our advertising columns to-day, is an undertaking designed to supply a want that has long been felt here; and we are glad to observe that an enterprise so essential to the well-being and prosperity of an industrial community like ours, has been taken hold of by such able and trustworthy hands.

The advantages of Savings Banks are now universally recognized. These institutions have become a permanent feature or adjunct of business and general industry in all parts of our country and Europe. A town of the size of Portland will scarcely be found in any of our older States, which has not its Savings Bank. In these institutions the industrial classes place their earnings, with the double advantage of safe-keeping and profit; while the resulting aggregation of capital gives opportunity for its employment in various ways for the development of new enterprises, and the increase of the general prosperity.

It is said that the eccentric but philanthropic Jeremy Bentham was the first who invited public attention to the desirability of these admirable institutions which form so striking a feature in the moral history and industrial progress of modern society. So far back as the year 1797 he proposed to establish what he called a "Frugality Bank;" and the wants to which it was by him designed to operate as a remedy were shown forth so fully in his plan, and correspond so nearly to the wants now existing, that we summarize them, as follows:

1. Want of physical means of safe custody, such as lock-up places; thence danger of depredation and accidental loss.

2. Difficulty of opposing and never-yielding resistance to the temptations afforded by the instruments of sensual enjoyment, where the means of purchasing them are constantly at hand.

3. Want of means of obtaining profit by the savings of labor, or the use of them in portions adapted to the peculiar exigencies of the industrial classes.

4. Want of a set of instructions and mementos constantly at hand, presenting to view the several exigencies, or sources of demand for money in store, and the use of providing it.

In the above we have a very comprehensive statement of the wants and uses of these institutions, so comprehensive, indeed, that even with the larger experiences of these times, little can be added to it. That it is not enough to stimulate mankind to industry, unless they can be persuaded to adopt habits habits of frugality, is sufficiently obvious. The season of plenty should always provide for the season of want. Ready money, as every one knows by experience, is a very strong temptation to indulgences not necessary either for comfort, health or happiness. Now when prudent people learn where they can place their earnings, without danger or inconvenience, and withal at a profit, many will take care to do so. Some do not understand how to put money in, or take it out of a bank in the way of regular commercial transactions; nor would it answer for small sums, either in point of trouble or loss of time. The savings bank supplies the want, and is everywhere becoming a prominent and permanent feature of social development and industrial progress.

The object of the Savings Department which is organized in connection with the First National Bank of Portland, and now ready to go into operation, is succinctly stated as follows: "In establishing a Savings Department this Banking Association have in view the benefits to accrue to a class of persons having small sums to loan, by providing a safe place of deposit, ample security and a fair rate of interest, as well as to aggregate and bring into use idle capital. A greater security for the safety of deposits in this Bank than that given by ordinary Savings Banks, is provided by pledging for them its entire capital and resources, and also the personal liability of its Directors and Stockholders, as provided the National Currency Act of 1864."

The rules and conditions of upon which deposits are to be received and refunded are simple, fair, and easily understood. Coin deposits will be received in sums of not less than five dollars, interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum will be allowed on all deposits, reckoned from the first day of the succeeding month, but no interest will be allowed on money which shall be withdrawn within three months from the date of making the deposit. This last regulation is necessary since the money must be loaned that the interest may be earned upon it. Interest on deposits will be payable semi-annually, but if not called for within thirty days after it is due it will be credited to the depositor and draw the same interest as the principal. The Association may require notice of the intended withdrawal of deposits, varying from five to thirty days, according to the amount to be withdrawn.

Heretofore much money has been sent out of our State by persons of frugal and industrious habits, for the sake of finding such advantages as are afforded by a savings bank. San Francisco has thus drawn away from us very considerable sums, which hereafter may be retained among us. The attention of those having small sums which can be spared either from their wants or pleasures, is directed to this prudent method whereby they can lay the foundation of future independence, and obtain infinitely more good out of their earnings than by expending a considerable part of them for the imaginary wants of the passing day.

In General.

California papers without distinction of party generally commend the appointment of ex-Gov. Low of that State as Minister to China. The selection is spoken of by all the leading journals as a most fit and judicious one.

Mrs. Stowe promises new revelations in the Byron controversy. Those who supposed that they were about to see the end of the affair may now obtain a hint that they have seen merely the beginning of it. Mrs. Stowe will without doubt, furnish some documentary proofs that will produce a sensation.

The reduction of the national debt is going on steadily at the rapid rate of one hundred million dollars a year. Last month cut off seven and-a-half millions. Every monthly statement of the debt since Grant became President has shown a large reduction. Really the "imbecility" of the administration is frightful to contemplate!

The Richmond Enquirer, the old and sturdy organ of the Virginia Democracy, has learned that the immediate mission of Americans is to subdue this continent, to develop it, and to spread their civilization over it, and that it was because the South, by its policy of stagnation, sought to go in the teeth of this providential purpose, that it was compelled to fail in the late war.

The New York Herald of September 24th, says that in the platform prepared by the New York Democrats before their recent Convention, there was an anti-Mongolian resolution, but it does not appear in the platform adopted. The reason is that it was thought best to have a clean fight on "Uncle Tom," and that in mixing him up with the Chinaman it was "getting too near the white man for a fair fight on the almighty nigger."

Democratic papers that were horrified only a little time since at the idea of fighting to preserve the Union and maintain our nationality, have suddenly become excessively national and belligerent in their ideas. The Herald, for instance, demands that we shall go to war with Spain on the Cuban question, and is greatly exercised lest the dignity and honor of our country shall be lost sight of in this affair. Only a short time since it pronounced for a war with Great Britain on the San Juan Island question. It is edifying to find those who but a little while ago couldn't think of fighting, even to save the nation from annihilation, now thoroughly disgusted with these piping times of peace, and striding about in feathers and war paint, anxious to whip all creation.

The Herald, speaking of the unusual immigration of Europeans into the United States, "would ask the Radical newspapers where all this army of Christian white men are to find employment, if the country is to be flooded with heathen Asiatics, who will work for less than European wages?" We can answer that none of them need apply at the Herald office. During the last three years all the old jobs about that establishment have been performed by "heathen Asiatics," and they are at it still. The same paper also says: "If the pagans are to come by the million, justice demands that we warn the Christians to stay away, since they are better off under the empires of the old world than they would be here." The Christians of Europe won't stay away for any such warning. The sturdy races of Europe who have subdued the wild inhabitants of every part of the globe and spread civilization over the face of the whole earth, are not such fools as to fear that an "inferior race" like the Chinese can put them down.

A Washington correspondent, writing under date of September 24th, states that the unmistakably healthy condition of the national finances is one of the prominent points already visible in the President's control of this vital interest. His policy regarding the finances is embraced under three simple propositions: economy in the administration of the finances, the collection of all the taxes and the reduction of the national debt as rapidly as the interests of trade and commerce admit. Since the accumulation of the enormous debt weighing upon the Government, the country has heard much of economy and collection of taxes. The official statements which have already been put forth show that these things are no longer fictions to deceive the people for political effect. The expenses of Government have been materially reduced and more revenue has flowed in than ever before. It is understood that the President anticipates a reduction of from $400,000,000 to $500,000,000 of the national debt during his administration, provided no extraordinary circumstances combine to check this, or it should be deemed expedient to make so rapid a reduction. The burdens under which the people labored during the preceding administration will be lightened; and there are also some hints already put forth looking to a funding of the debt at a lower rate of interest and a modification of the internal revenue laws, so as to relieve the vital industries of the country.

Both Stephens and Davis were in wretched health before the war. The former for years has been a walking skeleton—"a grave yard deserter." If Davis had been a hale man his prison life at Fortress Monroe was enough to have made of him "a ghostly wreck." Neither of them have anything to prey upon their minds for struggles in behalf of the independence of their land, any more than George Washington or Patrick Henry, excepting only failure. They struck for constitutional liberty, which the infamous conspirators who lead the Radical party have been striving for years to destroy. The memories of Davis and Stephens will be honored when theirs shall be cursed by all true patriots.

The above is from the San Francisco Examiner, and that journal is the leading organ of Democratic party in California. No other comment is necessary than that no rebel journal orator could have eulogized the cause or manifested sympathy for it in stronger language than this.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.—The San Francisco Examiner is more frank than consistent on this great hobby. Trying to defend Democrats for employing Chinese, it says they do so because they must because they can find no others to do their work. Well, the Chinese must be needed if that is the case; and why "banish" them, as Democratic demagogues said they would do if they got the power? Hear the Examiner:

> Some sixty or seventy thousand Chinamen are among us, and have supplanted that number of white laborers. In many portions of the country no other can be obtained. It is this kind or none. For ditching purposes, we doubt if a sufficiency of white laborers are to be had for love or money. It is not a very pleasant work.

The inconsistency of these sentences is laughably obvious. We are told that Chinamen have "supplanted" white laborers at work which the latter cannot be got to do "for love or money," because "it is not a very pleasant work." Now we have plenty of "ditching" to be done in this State, and common sense tells us that if we cannot get white men to do it we had better get others who are willing and able to do it. That is just all there is in this Chinese question. We want the Asiatics to do what white men do not want to do—to take the "ditching" and the other work that "is not very pleasant." We judge the class of white men they supplant at such work will not prove more profitable to us than they will.—Sacramento Union.

END OF THE DARWIN-WILSON SCANDAL.—Our readers will recollect that charges made some time ago against Judge Darwin, of Washington Territory, of seducing the wife of F. A. Wilson, then Collector of Customs of Puget Sound. We find the conclusion of that history in the San Francisco correspondence of the Sacramento Record. After the divorce of the Wilsons, Mrs. Wilson went to San Francisco to reside with her mother, and Darwin, his official term having expired, went thither to practice law. The connection of the parties continued, and the sudden death of Mrs. Wilson a short while since, aroused the suspicion of her former husband, who had a coroner's inquest held and developed the fact that she died from malpractice, while trying to hide the consequence of her misconduct with Darwin, who, at the investigation, acknowledged his intimacy with the deceased. The prosecution expects to make Darwin an accessory to the act of destroying her life, as he is known to have twice accompanied her to the house of the female doctor who caused her death. It is to be hoped that the prosecution will result in the conviction and punishment of Darwin. Justice cannot too strictly be meted out to the destroyer of female honor and the happiness of domestic life.—Statesman.

A cable telegram says it is estimated that in the late gale on the coast of Great Britain and Ireland, 120 vessels were wrecked, and several hundred seamen injured. This is an unusual number of vessels to perish in a single storm.

THE WEST.

H. Parker of Walla Walla, has returned to that place from the East, where he has been very busy for some months in disseminating information relative to the western country.

A man named John Sparrow recently fell down a shaft at Owyhee ninety-three feet. He was not killed, but both his legs were broken and his body was bruised in the most shocking manner.

Messrs. S. P. Scaniker and Theodore Burmester, partners in the practice of the law, are closing up their business in Boise City, and intend at an early day, to remove to Stockton, California.

The Elko Independent says the Grand Jury, lately in session in that place, passed upon thirty cases, most of the parties being in confinement. They found nineteen true bills and ignored eleven cases. Pretty fair beginning, surely.

The following premiums, awarded by State law in California, have been paid; For mulberry plantations—C. W. Reed, $3,875; A. P. Smith, $1,000; John Smith, $500; I. N. Hoag, $6,125; W. M. Haypie, $3,000; E. F. Aiken, $375; T. Harbison, $250. Cotton—Oakland Cotton Mills, $3,000. Woolen—Mission Woolen Mills, $15,000.

An Owyhee paper states that the Ida Elmore Company has adopted the contract system for sinking and stoping. They got their stoping done for from sixty eight to seventy dollars per fathom of thirty-six square feet. The lower level is represented by the miners to be the richest point yet found in the mine, and ore more abundant.

The Vallejo (Cal.) Chronicle says that there is talk of one or more woolen factories being erected at Calistoga. The distillery of Sam Brannan has been enlarged, and the capacity for brandy-making doubled. He pays for grapes $25 per ton, and has tanks for receiving the juice capable of holding 180,000 gallons. He will require 2,000,000 pounds of grapes to express this quantity of wine.

OREGON.

The Albany Register appears this week in an enlarged and improved form.

The Ashland factory is now at work on a large blanket order for Klamath Agency.

Wm. M. Turner has retired from the editorship of the Jacksonville Sentinel. Mr. Turner has made the Sentinel a good paper, and we regret to lose him from the position.

The Jacksonville Sentinel says: Mr. J. Davison, of Phœnix, brought a [illegible] of lime to this office last week which is the best article we have ever seen. The rock is quarried on Anderson Creek, and the lime is said by parties who have used it at Ashland, to be equal to the best Santa Cruz article.

The Times gives the following statistics of Polk county: Number of polls assessed for 1869, 800; acres of land assessed, 225,677; total value taxable property, less indebtedness, $1,524,513; State tax $11,433; school tax, $3,049; total tax to be raised, $25,673, requiring a levy of 17½ mills—7½ for State tax, 2 for school and 8 for county purposes. That paper claims that Polk, in proportion to its area, is the richest agricultural county in the State.

A correspondent of the Albany Register writes from Warm Springs that, "in Ochoco valley they have a school, and also two blacksmith shops, and one store, at which the pure Democratic platform can be obtained. There is about three thousand head of cattle, also, in Ochoco valley, about four hundred head of horses, and a great many sheep. Some of the more enterprising citizens are engaged working a wagon road to the Dalles. A mail route will doubtless be established from the Dalles via this Agency to Ochoco."

FRESHEST GLEANINGS.

The City Council of Albany are taking steps to erect a monument to the memory of Major-General Schuyler, and have appointed a Committee, of which Major Bleecker is chairman, to confer with his descendants on the subject.

Washington is very much gratified at the announcement that its death-rate is no larger than that of New York, and considerably less than that of England. The proposition to remove the Capital is bringing out a vast amount of invaluable information about that city.

The Governor of Iowa wants to learn whether such men as John C. Breckinridge, and other rebel leaders who fought for four years for the removal of the Capital to the "sunny South," are to be the leading spirits of the National Capital Convention in St. Louis, before he issues credentials to delegates from his State.

The First Hebrew Benevolent Association will hold its regular meeting on Sunday the 10th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M., at Turn Verein Hall.

SUPREME COURT.—Proceedings of October 4—from the Statesman of the 6th

J H Fisk and Clementine V Fisk respondent vs W J Bradbury and Joseph Kellogg appellants Appeal from Clackamas county

The respondent, Clementine V Fisk, is the daughter of Lot Whitcomb, deceased J H Fisk is her husband Lot Whitcomb died seized of the property at Milwaukie known as the Standard Mills He left a will in which he provided that after the payment of his just debts certain portions of his real and personal estate should go to certain of his heirs and then that all the balance of his estate real and personal should go equally to his three daughters, Clementine V (the respondent) [illegible] and Wilhelmina This mill property was not specifically devised consequently it fell under the latter clause This mill property the appellants claim and have been in [illegible] of the same since October 1859 under a sale made by the executors of Lot Whitcomb in August 1859, for the purpose of the payment of debts of the testator At the time this sale was made the respondent Clementine V., was a minor under fourteen years of age and had no general guardian, neither was there any guardian ad litem appointed to protect her interests At the date of the sale the whole property was worth about $15 000, the Standard Mills being up and improvements made to the extent of $11,000 Since appellants have had [illegible] they have placed therein additional improvements to the value of $5 000 The respondents brought their action of ejectment in Court below for the undivided one-third of the whole property claiming that the sale by executors was void for the reason that the Probate Court had no jurisdiction either of the subject matter (the petition being wholly insufficient) or of the [illegible] (no guardian having been appointed) [illegible] The appellants answered claiming under the sale A decree [illegible] was entered in favor of respondent in the Court below for the title and possession of the property [illegible] and for $2,700 damages for rents and profits, that being the balance of the one-third of the whole rents and profits of the premises after deducting $6 [illegible] being the one-third of the value of improvements made by appellants under color of title, as they claimed From this decree appellants appealed generally, and the decree of the Court below was affirmed in all respects the Court holding—

1st That the clause in the will of Whitcomb relative to the payment of debts did not create his executors trustees, so as to authorize them to make a sale of the [illegible] without an order from the Probate Court

2d That the respondent, Clementine V., being a minor and having no guardian either general or ad litem, [illegible] the sale, as to her, was void.

3d That the appellants were in possession under color of title, and the Court below therefore properly allowed them [illegible] for improvements made against claims, for rents and profits.

4th [illegible] to sell the estate of a decedent to pay debts, is not, as claimed by appellant, a proceeding in rem but that it is necessary that the requirements of the statute be strictly complied with and jurisdiction must be obtained over persons of heirs and [illegible] as well as over the subject matter

5th That appellants are not entitled to recover back any portion of the purchase money paid at executors sale, such sale being void.

6th That the fact that the purchase money was applied to the cancellation of debts which were liens on the [illegible] will not work an estoppel against the right of [illegible] to recover, neither will it subrogate the purchasers to the right of the creditors of the estate so as to give them any right, either in law or equity, to claim the [illegible] of the respondent.

Strong and Logan for appellants, Mitchell and Ellis for respondents

To the R W Grand Lodge of the United States—Your Special Committee to whom was referred the resolution emanating from the R W Grand Lodge of Oregon in relation to the establishment of Odd Fellowship in Germany [illegible] respectfully report that we see no reason why [illegible] should not be united [illegible] in all civilized countries We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution

ASTORIA.—From our correspondent Oct [illegible] Wm Ellis the thing who was convicted of an attempt to commit a rape on a little girl of this place at the last term of the District Court goes up to the Penitentiary at Salem to-day under charge of the Sheriff of this county to serve out a term of fifteen months He can thank his stars that he got a light sentence He has been skulking around here ever since his trial under $4 000 bonds waiting for a new hearing He got it the other day We can now truthfully say that [illegible] [illegible] may his shadow never grow less Such men as Ellis ought to be shown up He went back to the Old Country two or three years ago When he came [illegible] he brought a mother and not [illegible] at least he introduced her as such here He married her in a short time after his arrival here In some three or four months after his marriage he was blessed with an heir His wife and in fact have the sympathy of the whole community I hardly think Gov Woods, or any other man, will pardon him out

The steamship Pacific arrived here yesterday morning from Portland at about 8 o'clock She was unfortunate enough to stave in one of her small boats in making a landing at the wharf She only stopped about half an hour Judge Olney of this place went on board her on his way to the Atlantic States The Judge has been in very feeble health for some time and his friends here express a fear they may never see him back again Astoria could ill afford to lose such a man as Judge Olney

The Almatia is anchored off Fort Stevens waiting a favorable wind to go to sea The weather has been bad for several days

ARREST AND ESCAPE.—Charley Burch was arrested yesterday on a charge of attempted burglary in opening the door of the store of Johnson & Allerton, on the occasion of the burglary and robbery of Tuesday night and was brought before Justice Bull for examination While the justice was employed in some other matter the prisoner, with his counsel, Mr Mulky, went into a private room for consultation In a few moments, Mr Mulky came out of the room leaving the prisoner in it, and inadvertently closing the door A few minutes later the officer in attendance went into the room and found that the prisoner had vacated the premises without giving notice and without leaving any note on the table to explain his absence A search immediately begun when it was soon ascertained that he had jumped out of the back window had dodged under the wharf and had further dodged out of sight. He is dodging somewhere yet

COLUMBIA RIVER ROUTE TO THE EAST By advertisement it will be seen that the O S N Co whose lines of boats connect with Bailey's stage line for Kelton on the Pacific Railroad, have reduced the fare to the railroad to $60 The trip can now be made to Kelton (18 miles west of Promontory) in six days and to New York in ten days The O S N Company will also issue through tickets to any point in the Atlantic States connected with the Pacific Railroad The passage by the boats stages and railroad can be now made with as much comfort and in quicker time than by steamer via San Francisco and railroad and at less expense Oregonians going East should patronize the Oregon route

A PUBLIC MARKET.—A petition was received by the Council Wednesday evening from the Butcher's Association for ground on which to erect a market house The request ought to be granted, with these provisos that the market house shall be a general market house, and that the city shall have the right to regulate it by making needful rules and appointing some public officer to have a general supervision of the place, Such a market would be of great benefit not only to the city consumer but to the retail dealers of all sorts.

HABEAS CORPUS.—A few days since eleven Chinamen were arrested upon warrants issued by M P Bull, Justice of the Peace, on charges of threatening to kill On the preliminary examination, six of them were discharged and five were held to answer and upon their failure to give bail were committed to the county jail Yesterday they were brought before Judge Marquam upon a writ of habeas corpus, and discharged on the ground that the complaint did not properly charge the crime for which they had been held.

ERROR.—A few days since our correspondent at Astoria said the employees at the Custom House were still working ten hours per day, notwithstanding the President's proclamation General Holman superintendent of erection, informs us that some of the men by special contract, are working ten hours a day for corresponding pay Our correspondent who probably did not know of this arrangement, was thus in error No man is at work ten hours who does not receive ten hours' pay

SUDDEN DEATH—INQUEST.—A correspondent at Oregon City, Oct 5th, says Some time during last night Thomas Barry, a bar tender at Hays' saloon in this place, died very suddenly The Coroner held an inquest over the body, and the jury returned a verdict that the cause of his death was an over dose of laudanum administered by himself Depression of spirits produced temporary insanity which was no doubt the cause of his using laudanum

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.—Edward Kennedy was arrested on charge of burglariously entering the store of Johnson & Allen, and stealing money and property to the value of $120, last Tuesday night. He had an examination yesterday afternoon before M P Bull, Justice of the peace, and was held to answer in the Circuit Court—bail being fixed at $500, in default of which, the prisoner was sent to the county jail.

RETAILERS' PROTECTIVE UNION.—A number of the retail grocers of Portland held a meeting on Wednesday evening, and resolved to organize a Retail Grocers Protective Union Messrs H B Oatman, R Weeks and Wm McLeran were appointed a committee to draft a constitution and by laws Another meeting will be held next Tuesday to perfect the organization

LANDS DISPOSED OF.—At the Oregon City Land Office, during the quarter ending September 30 1869 the following lands in the district were disposed of Lands taken under the homestead law, 3,131 83-100 acres, lands sold for cash, 1,811 60-100 acres, pre-emptions filed, 4,800 acres.

THE LATEST STYLE.—The "Harvard Hat," to be found at Meussdorffer's Emporium, is the latest style out, and is almost universally worn at the east and at San Francisco, It is stiff rim, soft top, light tasteful and cheap Meussdorffer keeps up with the drift of fashion

WASHINGTON GUARD'S SOIREE.—Capt Mills informs us that there will be a hop at Armory Hall on Saturday evening under the management of the above popular Company This is to be the first of a series to be given during the coming winter

FUNERAL.—The remains of Jas Doherty who was drowned in the Wallamet river Tuesday night, were buried yesterday afternoon, with military honors, by the Emmet Guard.

THE ADELINE ELWOOD.—This vessel, up for Liverpool, will load at McCraken, Merrill & Co's wharf instead of anchoring out in the stream

PEWS RENTED.—Nearly all the pews in the Presbyterian Church were sold yesterday at the annual meeting

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Moses Taylor will sail for San Francisco at 5 o clock to morrow afternoon.

JAMISON'S stage will go through to-day to McMinnville Another stage will go through on Saturday

ANNOUNCEMENT.—That on Tuesday evening, October 12th the Nonpareil Lodge, I O G T, will give a Supper and Sociable at the Hall on First street, between Yamhill and Taylor Tickets can be obtained at the door

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat fully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office consisting principally of Rheumatism Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitants [illegible] Impotency and all kinds of weaknesses of the Generative Organs, Spermatorrhœa confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally accomplishes the cure without the aid of any medicine whatever It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

The Southern Riots.

AS EXPLAINED BY A SOUTHERN SAGE.

'Twas by the wayside near a Southern town,
I spied a sage beneath a tree reclining;
His old straw hat was guiltless of a crown,
His pantaloons had less of cloth than lining
Addressing him about the latest news,
I quickly found him, by his salutation
A man of boundless and erroneous views,
And vast and various misinformation

"I reckon you're a Yankee, come," said he,
"Upon some sneaking mission or another,
To see how being Equalized and Free
Agrees with him you call your Colored Brother
Extinction waits on him with all his Rights.
So freely given by your laws confounded!
He'll keep attacking the defenceless whites,
Till all the colored race are killed or wounded.

"In New Orleans—behold the lesson taught!—
When in Convention certain blacks assembled,
A squad of peaceful throngs outside was caught,
And in the hall the blacks bloodthirsty trembled,
Then through the windows, lobbies, outer gate,
By the unarmed Caucasian race surrounded,
The freedman sallied in their murderous hate,
And nineteen colored men were wounded

"In central Georgia, several months ago,
The sons of Africa held a loyal meeting,
And divers white men went to see the show
And give the speakers friendly southern greeting.
But lo! when speaking had gone on a spell,
And all the air with loyal words resounded,
Upon the helpless whites the negroes fell,
And thirteen colored men were badly wounded.

"In old Virginia, at a rural place,
Where many Africans had come for voting,
The merest handful of the higher race
Were looking on, and minor matters noting
When, at a cry about some vote refused,
The blacks infuriate on the handful bounded,
Their knives and pistols mercilessly used,
And fourteen colored men were badly wounded.

"So at the capital of all the States—
Your boasted Washington, the placid city—
There was, in journals of the proper dates,
Correct report of what should move your pity:
The town election rallied countless blacks,
Who, armed and maddened, and to riot bounded,
Made on the unresisting whites attacks,
And fifteen colored men were badly wounded.

"Yet furthermore, of late in Tennessee,
Where Stokes was beaten at the polls by Senter,
The savage negroes, armed from head to knee,
Seemed on a fight than on their votes intenter.
To vent one petty, diabolic spite,
Upon the plea of some vague charge unfounded,
They turned in fury on a single white,
And sixteen colored men were badly wounded.
—Orpheus C. Kerr.

Spectrum Analysis.

"Beyond all comparison, the most brilliant and startling conquest which the human mind has yet made over the domain of Nature, consists in that group of discoveries which is described by the term Spectrum Analysis. It provokes amazement in every aspect. In the first place, the developments have been made with a rapidity that is almost astounding; the whole thing has been done in ten years. Dr. Wollaston discovered, in the year 1802, that, by looking carefully at the solar spectrum with a spy-glass dark lines could be seen crossing it. In 1815, Fraunhofer, a German optician, rediscovered and made a map of several hundreds of them, and from that time they were called after him, Fraunhofer's lines. But few supposed that there was the slightest possible significance in them; they were regarded as mere optical curiosities, having no higher use than to serve as landmarks for measuring the spaces of the colored spectrum. But, in 1859, the two German chemists Kirchhoff and Bunsen made the capital discovery that each chemical element, when burning in a flame, gave out a light that had its peculiar marks, or lines, so that these lines could become a means of detecting the element. A totally new mode of chemical analysis was thus hit upon, far more delicate than any thing hitherto known, and a method moreover, which was capable of becoming a revealer of the constitution of the universe. Chemistry, at a single stroke, was fused with astronomy, and the universal agent of light became the powerful servant of the laboratory.

"At the very first step, several new elements were discovered, the existence of which had never before been suspected. Examining with the spectrum the ash of some mineral waters, Prof. Bunsen thought he saw some lines which did not belong to substances already known. He then boiled down forty-four tons of Durkheim spring-water, and got a couple of hundred grains of residue, from which he extracted two new metals, Cæsium and Rubidium, which resemble potassium. This rubidium has been since found in the ash of oak, of beet-root, of tobacco, coffee, tea and cocoa.

"The spectrum analysis, however, is not a mere instrument of original chemical research; it has a 'practical' applicability. The 'Bessemer process,' as it is called, is a method of converting cast iron directly into steel. Cast iron contains more carbon than steel, and it is converted into steel by burning this carbon out of the molten white-hot mass by a blast of atmospheric air. In this operation five tons of cast iron are converted in twenty minutes into five tons of cast steel. But the success of the process depends upon being able to stop it just at the right time. If continued ten seconds too long, or stopped ten seconds too quickly, the batch is spoiled. The flame, of course, is an index of the advance of the combustion, and, by watching it with the spectroscope, the appearance and disappearance of the lines indicate the exact moment at which the operation is to be arrested.

"The spectroscope promises also to become a very valuable instrument in medico-legal investigations into the evidences of criminality. Blood-stains may be detected by it with extreme delicacy. Mr. Sorby has shown that the one-thousandth part of a grain of the red-coloring matter of a blood-stain may be detected with the greatest certainty.

"But it is in its celestial applications that the spectroscope has performed its most wonderful achievements. The constitution of the sun, for example, which, ten years ago, was matter of the purest conjecture, is now a matter of definite and positive knowledge. We know what it is composed of—its chemical constituents—not so completely, but with the same certainty, as we know the chemical constitution of the earth. Sixteen of the elements with which we are familiar upon earth, are proved also to exist in the atmosphere of the sun. They are the following: sodium, calcium, barium, magnesium, iron, chromium, nickel, copper, zinc, strontium, cadmium, cobalt, hydrogen, manganese, aluminum, titanium.

"The stars have been also subjected to spectroscopic study with equal success. They are shown to resemble our sun, their light coming from white-hot matter in their atmospheres. About eighty lines in the spectrum of the light from Aldebaran have been mapped, and it has been ascertained that the atmosphere of this star contains sodium magnesium, hydrogen, bismuth tellurium, antimony, and mercury. Sirius contains sodium, magnesium, iron and hydrogen. About sixty other stars have been examined, and all seem to have some chemical element known on earth."
—Appleton's Journal.

Unveiled Nonsense—Beecher on the War Path.

Henry Ward Beecher having, in one of his pleasant letters to the Ledger, ventured humorously to recommend cultivation as a means of exterminating the Canada thistle, a solemn pedant, writing to the Christian Intelligencer over the signature of "Puritan," and under the title of "Veiled Profanity," undertakes to administer a ponderous rebuke to the witty Brooklyn divine. The point of "Puritan's" article is in these sentences:

"Henry Ward Beecher says, 'The only way to exterminate the Canada thistle is to plant it for a crop, and propose to make money out of it. Then worms will gnaw it, bugs will bite it, beetles will bore it, aphides will suck it, birds will pick it, heat will scorch it, rains will drown it, and mildew will blight and cover it.' These bugs, beetles, aphides, heat, rain and mildew are the messengers of God. If they are sent, they are on an errand for God. Now, if the above extract has a point, it is that when mankind plants a crop of any kind of grain or seed, God takes a malicious pleasure in defeating such schemes! Such a statement is far deeper in its tone than a mere murmur. Especially as Mr. Beecher's farm at Fishkill is well known to be cultivated with reference to making money."

Mr. Beecher, who likes nothing better than to deal with an antagonist who exposes himself so recklessly, retorts with perfect good humor in this effective fashion:

This is exquisite! If mildew attacks my grape vines it is on an errand for God, and if I sprinkle tan dare to open a blasphemous umbrella and to push it up into the very face of this Divine messenger? When a child is attacked by one of "God's messengers"—the measles, canker rash, dysentery, scarlet fever—would it be a very great sin to send for a doctor on purpose that he might resist these divine messengers?

There are insects which attack men, against one of which we set up combs, and against another sulphur." Nay," says Puritan, "if they are sent they are on an errand for God."

Yes, we confess it. A "murmur" very imperfectly expressed our feelings as we dig at a Canada thistle, or squirt whale oil or soapsuds over a myriad of Puritan's divine messengers, called aphides. A grumble would not be too strong a word to use on such occasions. Nay, the reverend gentleman has been known to say, in a paroxysm of horticultural impiety, "I wish every rose bug on the place were dead!" which must seem to Puritan a piece of horrible depravity.

I did not know before that I had a farm in Fishkill. My experience with the farm at Peekskill, "which is well known to be cultivated with reference to making money," is such, that if it be true that I own another farm at Fishkill, I shall consider myself on the straight road to the poor house.

I may have been mistaken, but it has seemed to me that every crop that I have attempted to raise has had swarms of "messengers" sent upon it. But, until now, I never suspected that God sent them in any other sense than that in which he sends diseases, famines, tyrants, literary "Puritans," and all other evils which afflict humanity.

But what is to be done about this matter? If it be "blasphemy" to speak against bugs, it can be but little short of sacrilege to smash them. Here have I been, in the blindness of unrepentant depravity, slaughtering millions of "the messengers of God," called aphides! I have ruthlessly slain those other angelic "messengers," called mosquitoes, who come singing to us with misplaced confidence. I have even "railed at fleas and spoken irreverently of gnats."

THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!

LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE ONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.

ORTON'S PREPARATION!

ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. It is perfectly safe and harmless to all cases. It is almost impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted. With the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it, who are ready to bear witness to the fact, that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by Tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of Tobacco from the system and thus allaying the unnatural cravings for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco, by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly, ABANDON THE USE OF IT.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the [illegible] recommendations in our possession.

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will entirely destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, without creating an appetite either for the [illegible] any substitute.

W. P. Heald, Bangor, Maine; J. Moody, [illegible] Indiana; E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.; J. M. [illegible] rill, Bangor, Maine; J. Bunch, Springfield, [illegible] D. Harrington, West Point, Georgia.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & [illegible]
PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, Dec. 15, [illegible]

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years have been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was greatly injuring my health, I determined if possible to check myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, Maine, for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not yet elapsed, yet the medicine has effectually relieved me of all yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or [illegible] than to commence chewing gum. I [illegible] lieve the Preparation will have the promised effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to aid those who wish to break away from the slavish habit of using Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL [illegible]

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers will please order directly from the Proprietor, or his duly authorized Agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country, securely sealed from observation, with postage paid, on receipt of price.

How to send money by mail.—Enclose the amount in a letter, seal carefully, register the letter and take a receipt for it of your Postmaster. Money sent by mail in the above directed at my risk. Address
